in its verdict, Judge Dibbell hurriedly called the court to order.

Golda Sayler sat beside her mother, Mrs. Sayler. When the verdict finding Mrs. Sayler guilty was read, she threw herself into the arms of her daughter and sobbed convulsively. Golda sought to comfort her mother and caressed and kissed her. Mrs. Miller clung weeping to her husband when the verdict against him was read. Their son Erington Miller, 14 years old, was not present.

Senator Aldrich's statement that the expenses of the government might be optailed to the extent of $300,000,000 Washington, April 11.—With the passage of the naval appropriation bills in the house, the large supply bills are well advanced, and only two more remain to be passed in the house, the sundry civil bill and the general deficiency bill. The former is about completed by the appropriation committee, while the latter will not be brought in until the very end of the session. It until the very end of the session. It is expected that the sundry civil bill will cause some discussion in the house but that is the only large bill that is likely to take up any time.

Watseks, Ill., April 11.—Dr. W. R. Miller and Mrs. J. B. Sayler were found guilty today of manslaughter for the slaying last July of J. Byron Sayler, a banker of Crescent City. John Grunden of Oklahoma, father of Mrs. Sayler, was acquitted by the jury. Punishment was fixed by the jury at twelve years imprisonment for Dr. Miller and three years for Mrs. Sayler. The jury deliberated more than 36 hours. When the jury finally brought in its verdict, Judge Dibbell hurriedly Postoffice Appropriation Bill. The senate is somewhat behind the house, but can easily eatch up at almost any time. There has been considerable delay in reporting the post-office appropriation bill by the senate committee, due to an effort to report it just as it passed the house. This has been objected to by the postoffice department, because the house bill

For the first time since he was arrested, Dr. Miller felt handcuffs as he was taken from the court room to the county jall after an affecting farewell with his wife.

Mrs. Sayler, somewhat recovered from her emotion, walked unshackled to the cell which has been her home for many months. John Grunden went from the court house a free man.

J. B. Sayler was shot to death in the parlor of his home by Dr. Miller, Friends of Sayler alleged that there was a plot between Mrs. Sayler and Dr. Miller, who were great friends, to get rid of Sayler. The defendants alleged that Mr. Sayler precipitated his death by attacking Dr. Miller with a hatchet without provocation.

Washington, April 11.—Basing his conclusions on the auditor's return of postal receipts and expenditures for the first half of the current fiscal year and on preliminary returns for the third quarter of the year which closed March 31. Postmaster General Hitchcock predicted today that the first year of the present administration would show a decrease of over ten million dollars in the deficit of $17,480,900 handed down from the preceding year. The deficit for the first half of the current year was $4,072,000 as against $10,285,090 for the first half of last year, a reduction of over six millions in six months.

Mr. Hitchcock said further:

"The work of reorganization is still in progress and the postmaster general believes that with certain changes he has recommended to congress in some of the postal laws that now hamper the department it will be possible in another year to place the postal service on a self sugaining basis."

N. Y. C. TRAINMEN REFUSE

The Moon anti-injunction bill, which is so strongly opposed by the manufacturers of Connecticut, seems to be buried in the judiciary committee, but may be reported out later. The house may also take up in the near future the bill regulating contributions and elections of members of the house. This is the bill advocated by the late Col. Alexander Troup of New Haven. This is the bill advocated by the late Col. Alexander Troup of New Haven, and it stands a good show of getting through. Pittsburg, Pa., April 11.—The registers of the Hotel Imperial, New York, where the largest lump sum of the bribery money for Pittsburg councilmen was paid over to Charles Stewart in June, 1908, are in the possession tonight of District Attorney William A. Blakeley. The books are axpected to reveal the signature of the man, as yet unnamed, who handed over the money to Stewart. Hoffstot Will Fight Extradition.

Frank N. Hoffstot, the alleged leader of a pool which raised a $52,000 fund to influence legislation in favor of six Pitisburg banks, will resist extradition from New York to Pitisburg.

In reply to counsel for Hoffstot, District Attorney Blakeley said tonight that extradition proceedings would be begun at once. The papers are practically ready to forward to Gov. Edwin S. Stuart. Mr. Blakeley himself will go to Albany to lay them before Governor Hughes. The papers will not ask for Hoffstot's appearance before a grand jury, as was recommended by that body, but before a yourt to answer charges on which he has already been indicted. Frank N. The immediate cause of the reassignment of the cases is regarded as having been the recent death of Justice Brewer. His death left only seven justices actively at work on the bench, because Justice Moody has been absent all this term by reason of illness.
It is believed the court will not advance the cases for reargument until President Tark has been given ample time to fill the vacancy created by the death of Justice Brewer. If this vacancy is not filled before the senate adjourns for the summer, it is probable the cases will not be taken up again until after the first of next December, when the semite will meet again. This is based on the assumption that a recess appointee would violate a precedent which has been unbroken for more than a hundred years if he took his seat on the bench before being confirmed.

Cambridge, Mass., April 11.—With two blanks cast, 300 memoers of the Harvard law gchool broke even in a straw vote cast today under the supervision of the Harvard Political club on the question: "Resolved, That the record of the present administration for the past year would not justify the re-election of President Taft."

The vote stood 149 to 149, Divided by parties it was as follows: Republicans for Taft 120; against 59; democrats for Taft 9; against 59; democrats for Taft 120; against 50; Washington, April 11.—Speaker Cannon's suggestion that the "insurgents" in the house did not have sufficient courage to join the solid minority in the election of his successor and his prediction that the republicans would carry the next congressional election were the striking features of a somewhat sensational day in the proceedings of congress.

In the senate today consideration was begun of the administration railroad bill, section by section. Several amendments offered by Mr. Elkins for the administration republicans were adopted.
